IMPORTANT UPDATE: Following latest guidelines coming from the US authorities, at the ship embarkation Hungarian passport holders will be required to present the application for a new ESTA until further notice. In case it won't be issued for any reasons, the pax will be required to sign a Break of Voyage in order to be disembarked before the return in USA, otherwise they could be denied to embark. Guests holding a USA B1/B2 Visa won't be affected by any restriction.

The Department of Homeland Security, Customs and Border Protection administers the ESTA program, so we would direct you to CBP's website for more information about ESTA and prior State Sponsors of Terrorism travel.

<https://esta.cbp.dhs.gov/>

If DHS denies ESTA for a traveler, they should apply for a B1B2 visa. Likewise, applicants who have travelled to State Sponsors of Terrorism and would therefore not be eligible for ESTA should apply for a B1/B2 visa.

Please be aware that current wait times for B1/B2 processing are long: B1/B2 applicants are encouraged to apply at least six months prior to expected travel.

PLEASE NOTE: Effective August 1st, 2023, the ESTA validity period for travel to Hungarian passport holders is reduced to one year and for a single use

If DHS denies ESTA for a traveler, they should apply for a B1B2 visa. Likewise, applicants who have travelled to State Sponsors of Terrorism and would therefore not be eligible for ESTA should apply for a B1/B2 visa. Please be aware that current wait times for B1/B2 processing are long; B1/B2 applicants are encouraged to apply at least six months prior to expected travel.
